

Vocabulary 3

verbs		nouns		pronoun
manet	he/she stays, waits	terra	earth, land	eum	him, eam her (acc.) sedet	he/she sits	cibus	food	ad	to, towards videt	he/she sees	colonus	farmer	nam	for ascendit	he/she climbs	filius	son cadit	he/she falls	ager	field currit	he/she runs	puer	boy, child dūcit	he/she leads inquit	he/she says	adjective mittit	he/she sends	ānxius, -a, -um	anxious redit	he/she returns
audit	he/she hears

Quintus helps his father

Read the following story aloud; understand and translate it postridiē Scintilla Quīntum vocat; mittit eum ad agrum. Quīntus cibum ad Flaccum portat; nam Flaccus diū in agrō laborat et fessus est. puer ad agrum festinat; Argum sēcum dūcit. mox Quīntus agrum intrat; Flaccum videt et vocat. Flaccus filium 5 audit et ad eum ambulat; in terrā sedet et cibum cōsūmit.

Quīntus domum nōn redit sed in agrō manet et Flaccum iuvat. olivam ascendit et olivās dēcutit. Flaccus olivās colligit. subitō lapsat Quīntus et ad terram cadit. Flaccus ānxius est et ad eum currit, sed Quīntus nōn saucius est; surgit et domum redit.

postridiē the next day; eum him diū for a long time in agrō in the field sēcum with him in terrā on the ground domum (to) home olivam olive tree; olivās olives dēcutit shakes down colligit collects; lapsat slips saucius hurt; surgit gets up

Respondē Latīnē

- 1 cūr (why?) Quīntus in agrō manet?
(quod = because)
- 2 quōmodo (how?) Quīntus Flaccum iuvat?
- 3 cūr ānxius est Flaccus?

Read through the Latin passage above once more. See how many Latin words you can find which have English derivatives (i.e. English words which come from the Latin words). Write down each Latin word together with its English derivative (you should be able to find at least ten).

Gathering olives

